

Gentle and Soft Mind

One Saturday morning, as soon as I opened the temple door, I heard the sound of a vacuum cleaner. I went to my office and saw two elderly gentlemen cleaning the room next to my office. I greeted them and said to one of them, "You don't need to clean the room so thoroughly and nicely, do you? After all, the temple has already been sold and we are moving out in a couple of months." With a smile, he said, "Well, I have already started, so I will finish it anyway," and he continued to clean the room.

Then I went downstairs. I saw several elderly ladies working in the kitchen and dining area. Some were cleaning and polishing an oven and its burner. Some were washing the floor and wiping the dust off of the window frames. It was shining everywhere. I stood there for a moment for I was struck with awe. Then I remembered a Japanese saying: "A waterfowl which leaves its home does not leave any untidy and unclean spots behind."

I regret what I told the gentleman. I was ashamed of myself. Even a bird leaves a place without leaving a mess. We should be conscientious when we leave a place. We should be concerned about people who are coming to the place later. Are we not all connected with one another whether we know them or not? These elderly members who were working to clean up may not know who is moving in and yet they were doing consciously and unconsciously what they should do for others. I thought that they must have been brought up and nurtured by the Light of Buddha for a long time.

I think that we are essentially self-centered and selfish beings. We do not really think of others. We do not show our concern especially to those who are unaware or have no relation. However, I saw that morning these elderly people who were working so unselfishly.

One of Amida Buddha's aspirations is that "the bodies and minds of all sentient beings become gentle and soft by being enveloped and touched by my Light." Watching these elderly members I thought that the aspiration of the Buddha had been realized. Yes, the light of the Buddha is able to nurture our hearts and minds and eventually transform them into gentle and soft hearts and minds.

「煩惱を絶つことなく、悟りの世界を歩む」

ある方から「教えを聞いても、その後、すぐまた欲や、腹立ちが起こります。どうしたらよいのでしょうか」と訊ねられました。仏様の教えを聞けば、欲や腹立ちがなくなるもの、と私たちは思うのです。仏教は、たしかに煩惱(欲、腹立ち)の心を制御して、なくしていく道といえます。しかし、日々の生活の中で、わが身を省みる時、これほど難しい道はないことに気づきます。

親鸞さまは、煩惱の心を持ちながら、お悟りの世界を歩むことが出来る、と教えて下さいます。それは、み仏のお慈悲の心をよく聞かせていただくことによるのみ可能であると言われるのです。私達の愚かさゆえに働いて下さっているお慈悲<仏心、本願、真実の働き>に気づかされる時、私達の欲や腹立ちは、もう仏道の邪魔にならないということなのです。それは、決して煩惱のままに生きてらよい、ということではありません。お慈悲に照らされれば、おのずから「つつしみ」の心も育てられていくものと思います。大海に一滴の墨を落としても、海そのものは全く影響されることがない如く、私達の煩惱(欲、腹立ちの心)は、み仏の広大な慈悲の邪魔にはならないのです。それどころか、自然に浄化されていくのです。要は、そのような広大なみ仏のお慈悲に、今、出会うことである、ということでしょう。いよいよ、み仏のお心を聴聞させていただきましょう。合掌(開教使いずみ)

Shin Buddhist On-Line Correspondence Course

An exciting learning opportunity is happening!! In response to a growing interest in Jodo Shinshu, the BCC - Living Dharma Centre has established a correspondence course for those new to Jodo Shinshu and those who are already members and wish to deepen their understanding and appreciation.

In preparation for a full launch of the Correspondence course later this year, a ten week pilot program was launched in January 2008 with participants from United States, Canada, Australia, Singapore and Japan. These included Lorita Ichikawa and Renae Barlow of BTSA (Buddhist Temple of Southern Alberta).

Within this ten week period, participants engaged in activities anticipated to be part of the full version of study for the fall of 2008. The pilot program topics included: 1) Buddha-Dharma - Sakyamuni Buddha and His Teaching, 2) An Introduction to Jodo Shinshu Buddhism, 3) ShinShu II, and 4) History of ShinShu. Each topic came with a 30- 40 page reference document with a list of other resources that could also be sought. An essay was required at the end of each section and there were usually a number of questions to choose from. Once the essay was submitted one or two of the instructors would respond within a couple of days with comments and suggestions. Pilot project participants were then asked to provide comments, both of a positive and negative, that would improve the quality of the teachings. It was overall a very positive learning experience.

The online version of this course included establishing an online account on Moodle (educational web-based software) from which participants could review the outline of the course, download text material, writing and submit essays, chat with other students, receive feedback from instructors and provide feedback on the course. The feedback from participants will be considered by the organizing committee sometime in early April.

The full version correspondence course will be offered this September and is expected to span two years of part-time correspondence study. More details as to content, workload, and tuitions costs will be forthcoming in the next few months.

As a participant I found the 10 week course informative and thought provoking. I felt the experience served to deepen my appreciation and understanding of Jodo Shinshu and ignited a desire to continue the studies. I am eagerly waiting to enroll in the fall courses. I hope that others feel compelled to take the course or at least participate in the study group that may be created from the ongoing teachings.

Temple Construction

If you drive by the new temple site you will notice that there is finally some action on building the new temple. The Building Committee, supported by the board, has agreed to the final cost estimate and this was the last obstacle to the start of construction. Please note that only authorized personnel are allowed to enter the construction site. Permission is required by the contractor to enter the site. So feel free to drive around and monitor the progress but please let the workers do their job. The more they can concentrate of the job the sooner the temple will be completed.

Chow Mein Supper

Many thanks to all of the volunteers who made the first BTSA Chow Mein Supper a great success. We had lots of volunteers for the various workdays and this made it easier for everyone. See full report to the left.

A Friendly Membership Reminder

Join the BTSA and become an active member of the Jodo Shinshu movement in southern Alberta. Your membership is now due. The 2008 annual fee is $50 per member. Please make cheques payable to the Buddhist Temple of Southern Alberta

Dharma Dragon Boat Team

"Help! Calling all paddlers for the Dragonboat Team - "Three Dead Crabs and a Jellyfish". Early bird registration is the first week of May. For particulars, please contact: Darren Takao email darrentk@telus.net.

Next BTSA Board Meeting

Thanks to the generosity of the Coaldale members, our next board meeting will be held in Coaldale at the Coaldale Buddhist Church at 2013 18th Street at 7:00pm on Wednesday, April 9. Please feel welcome to attend this and all other board meetings.

Vision

The Buddhist Temple of Southern Alberta is dedicated to being an open Jodo Shinshu Sangha organization that appreciates, promotes, preserves and practices the Buddha Dharma teaching.

Mission

The mission of the Buddhist Temple of Southern Alberta is to gratefully promote and practice Buddha Dharma teaching through:

• Communication • Community • Tradition • Education • Resource Development

Guiding Principles

A response by the BTSA must always involve the following key factors:

- Ensure that our motivation is a sense of gratitude and compassion.
- Take into account the widest possible perspective.
- Be vigilant in ensuring that we remain honest, self-aware, unbiased and trustworthy; the danger otherwise is that we may fall victim to self-delusion.
- In the face of any real ethical challenge, respond in a spirit of humility.
- Ensure our interaction with the community by promoting dedication, commitment and involvement.
- Strive to keep in mind the primary goal of the wellbeing of humanity as a whole and the planet we inhabit.

What is Homyo?

The Homyo or Dharma Name (the Buddhist Name) is given to you upon your death by your minister. However, it is ideal that you receive one at the Confirmation Ceremony by Monshu or overseas Bishop. It is a reminder of being a Jodo Shinshu Buddhist. Those who do not have the Homyo card for your loved one, please let Rev. Izumi know. He will make one for you. Please bring the Homyo card when you come to the Monthly Memorial Service.
